

PRESS RELEASE

For immediate release OCT 2014

IHTF Food & Beverage Forum

Epicuri continues to gain momentum from its initial launch in September 2014. In just over one short month Epicuri has been officially launched at five Ambassador Status restaurants, from fine-dining outfits in the midlands to new and exciting curry houses in the South.

To add to the repertoire Epicuri now seeks to gain new ground in wider sections of the hospitality industry. ThinkTouchSee founders Iksit Gadhia and Manish Patel will be presenting Epicuri to a number of high level hotel professionals at the prestigious IHTF Food & Beverage Forum on November 24th and 25th.

EPoS Bringing Value to F&B at Hotels

Epicuri's unique approach to EPoS makes it a perfect fit for restaurants within hotels to increase custom and deliver exceptional service – the invaluable ingredients that will inevitably result in steady loyalty and positive reviews.

Epicuri will bring automated order processing, low-cost-high-value technology and software as a service, marketing lines and many more features to the frontline, which will drive efficiency and create new opportunities. Once integrated with back-office APIs Epicuri will become a formidable entry to this market.
